

STATUTORY TESTING 2021-22

Following the COVID related disruptions in 2020 and 2021, Statutory Testing is being resumed from the 2021-2022 academic year in all Primary schools.

Below is more information about dates for the various tests in different year groups. We will be informing parents and providing more details in due course and also invite parents for information briefings.

Apart from these formal statutory assessments, all pupils will be regularly assessed by their class teachers in other ways to monitor their attainment and progress.

Please speak to your child's class teacher if you require more information.
