

Dear Parents and carers

Welcome to this edition of ROMERO NEWS, our half termly newsletter about the Catholic life and Religious Education at English Martyrs' School. We hope this will give you a better idea of special days and other celebrations this half term so that our work in school can also be supported at home within the family.

INSPECTION

On the 24th and 25th April we welcomed two visitors for the Catholic School Inspection of our school.

We are very happy with the outcome. A big thank goes to everyone for their contribution in whatever role they played towards this Inspection process. Reading the report shows how everyone at English Martyrs' contributes towards building a community based on the Gospel Values, something that we all value greatly and something that makes a big difference for so many. A copy of the full report can be downloaded from the school website.
